

PROPERTY MANAGEMENT TO BUILD 250 HOMES

Property Management, 24 Hill views, Bergerman said. He emphasized the fact that these, like other homes in scenic Rancho Palos Verdes, are ideally located for such outdoor activities as swimming and fishing in the nearby surf and horseback riding on beautiful trails.

"We chose Palos Verdes because of the ideal living conditions it offers," Bergerman said, "and also because of its proximity to the industrial employment areas of Torrance and southwest Los Angeles, International Airport, Hawthorne, Gardena, San Pedro, and Long Beach.

Rancho Palos Verdes is being developed by Palos Verdes Properties, a partnership of Rancho Palos Verdes Corp. and the Capital Co.

Pvt. Regan At Fort Sill

Pvt. Thomas J. Regan, son of John P. Regan, of 22408 Warmside Ave., recently completed artillery surveyor training at Fort Sill, Okla.

Regan received the training in the 617th Field Artillery Observation Battalion.

The 19-year-old soldier entered the Army in January of this year and completed basic training at Fort Ord.

The homes will be constructed by Property Management, Inc., which has built 5000 homes in Los Angeles County. The homes will average $25,000. Work will begin in October and will be completed in the spring of 1957.

The development is located east of Marymount School. When subdivided it will be composed of extra-size lots, many of them with ocean
